This weekend Father Joseph Wargacki and his lovely wife, Lori have arrived after driving up the Alcan Highway. The parish is eager to meet and greet them, and wish them a warm Alaskan welcome with blessings from God in their service to God and our community.

Blessed Theodore, your warm hospitality overjoyed our hearts in your farewell potluck with us. We were so very glad to meet and share with you all. We drove home to Anchorage with very big smiles; so very full of wonderful food, love and warm memories of our time together. Thank you all for sharing with us.

FROM FATHER MICHAEL SIDUN & FAMILY

The time has flown by, five years in the blink of an eye and we cannot say anything but "See you soon" as our hearts will always be with St. Nicholas and Alaska. Our heartfelt thank you and appreciation to all the parishioners, their families and friends that have made our time here such a blessing. I truly enjoyed giving the blessing at the end of Liturgy with extra water, as I remembered those who gave me a little sprinkle last Sunday at the picnic. But most of all the farewell party and potluck warmed our hearts especially with the surprise of the "Polka Dots" band. We became overwhelmed with joy and with love for you all as we celebrated together dancing and spending our time with laughter, great food, deserts and always the ice cream. The day was more than just the best time for all of us; it was an experience of joy that will last forever in our hearts. It was delightful to do the "chicken dance" and the "hokee pokee" with the families and children and to dance the Polka with everyone around in a circle. It is the circle of life, meaning we will take that circle and return to our "Alaskan home" again, as you have made it so for us.
